

Apartments at Paxton Court, Tenby

Overview:

Paxton Court in Tenby is a development of 36 one and two bedroom retirement apartments, developed by McCarthy & Stone. The development on a coastal site in the town centre of Tenby, south Wales, was designed specifically for the over 60s, with many residents enjoying a sea view. A full range of support services is included for residents, including a 24 hour emergency call system to provide support for those of advancing years.

Outcome:

McCarthy & Stone called on Adexsi to help by designing, supplying and installing pressurisation to the building's basement lobby and car park area. Adexsi liaised with the local Fire and Building Control authorities to ensure the resulting installation was approved and delivered to tight deadlines, for a timely installation on site.
