

Blackfriars, London

Overview:

One Blackfriars is an awe-inspiring sculpture, as it gazes down on the River Thames it provides a magnificent addition to the London skyline.

170-metres high, the tower provides 274 apartments and is ideally placed to embrace the home of the arts on SouthBank.

Providing unique views across the city and built to an award-winning design by Simpson Haugh Architects, One Blackfriars is a beacon of brilliant architecture.

Berkeley Group were honoured with the Supreme Award in the multi storey category, this is highest accolade to be awarded by the NHBC.

A group director noted;

"A tremendous achievement and testament to the quality of build being achieved on this prestigious and iconic building. It is the result of meticulous attention to detail and a drive to achieve the best possible quality. Congratulations to all involved."
